

Broken but Blissful

I'm no fool
I see the world
You see me
I'm not like you
You hate it sinful, arrogant, disruptive I'm just me
you lock me up like some twisted new age
whipping boy
you can't break my soul
Years go by
I am still here
broken but blissful
no cares
you bring me back
I'm no fool
I see the world
you see me
I'm just like you
