

Dedication: This is the song that Basil's father would sing to her when she was a kitten.

Lullaby

*Love and be loved
Remember I care for you
Smile as bright as you can
No one is here to hurt you*

*Forgive and be forgiven
I have made mistakes of my own
You are no different than I
We can all learn to atone*

*Live and let live
No living thing is all bad
All beings want to enjoy their time
So do not fear them or be mad*

*Rest and let fear go
Allow to see both sides
Remember you are flawed too
And we are all different like the ocean tides.*
