Deal with the Devil ~A love potion on Gadget poem~

*Oh dear mortal
What do you wish?
I can give anything
You're heart may seek*

*Why ask for a mouse?
She may be beautiful and fair
But how long will she last
Before your heart starts to tear?*

*But never mind
If you will not ask how
After all just give me your soul
And you can have her now*

*Don't worry don't fret
The fee will come another day
I just hope you don't regret
You just gave your soul away*
