

Bloody Memories

*These eyes once held kindness,
Now they only break the heart.
These hands once felt the light of day,
And welcomed its healing warmth.
Now they are cold and pale,
The day only bringing pain and suffering.*

*I once felt happy,
With the simple pleasure of being with you.
Now I am always hungry for that which,
I once swore not to take from you.
I am sorry for leaving my love,
But I can never return.
For I am now a vampire,
And you a vampire hunter.*
